In today's interconnected world, using English in the workplace provides better work opportunities. TOEFL® (Test of English as a Foreign Language). TOEFL® provides a benchmark to measure a person's proficiency in the English language for those whose mother tongue is not English.

TOEFL® ITP (Institutional Testing Program) is a 2-hour paper-based test which is accepted towards a job promotion at a company. Divided into 3 parts, the test includes Listening test (35 minutes), Written & Structure (25 minutes) and Reading test (55 minutes). A total of 140 test problems have to be completed. Time is of the essence and there is no room for thinking for a long time. The main idea behind the test is English comprehension, not from understanding a particular subject.

Practice makes perfect, particularly through TOEFL® ITP to help increase the scores by 40 points. Preparation course for this test is available at Erlass Institute for a four-week period. It is recommended to aim for a TOEFL® ITP score of 550 to be considered for admissions to a foreign university or a job promotion.
